

10th LPR Network seminar
Paris, 17-18 October 2013
33 Rue Wurtz (Room 13)

Day 1: October 17

Chair: Fred Deven

9-9.40: Arrival of participants; welcome speeches; introducing the programme

9.45-11.15: Session 1. Reviewing the past decade: leave policies in a welfare state and family policy context.

- a. Recent evolution of welfare states and impact of the crisis (Bruno Palier, Sciences Po - L'Institut d'études politiques de Paris).
- b. Family policy in OECD member states and impact of the crisis (Willem Adema, Organisation for Economic Cooperation and Development - OECD)

11.15-11.45: Break

11.45-12.45 Session 2. Reviewing the past decade: leave policies in a welfare state and family policy context (continued)

- c. Leave policy in OECD member states and impact of the crisis (Olivier Thévenon, Institut national d'études démographiques - INED)

Sessions 1/2 conclude with comments by Tine Rostgaard (Aalborg University)

12.45-14.15: Lunch

Chair: Jeanne Fagnani

14.15-15.45: Session 3. Reviewing the past decade: selected regional perspectives

- a. Nordic states (Guðný Björk Eydal and Ingólfur V. Gíslason, University of Iceland)
- b. Southern Europe (Greece; Italy; Spain; Portugal) (Anna Escobedo, University of Barcelona and Karin Wall, University of Lisbon).

15.45-16.00 Break

16.00-17.30: Session 4. Reviewing the past decade: selected and invited regional perspectives (continued)

- c. Central and Eastern Europe or Visegrad countries (Piotr Michoń, Poznań University of Economics)
- d. English-speaking world (Margaret O'Brien, University of East Anglia and Marian Baird, University of Sydney)

Day 2: October 18

Chair: Olivier Thévenon

9.30-10.45: Session 5. Reviewing the past decade: the case of France

Participants will be asked to read the country note on France before the seminar to get the basic information about leave and ECEC policies

- a. French policy: from a French perspective (Sandrine Dauphin and Anna Hiltunen, CNAF)
- b. French policy: from an outside perspective (Laura Merla, Université catholique de Louvain).

10.45-11.15 Break

11.15-12.45. Session 6. Workplace practice and culture: effects before, during and after leave

- a. "Taking pappa leave? Great! How will your job get done?" Companies' gradual accommodation of caregiving fathers in Sweden (Linda Haas, University of Indiana and Philip Hwang, University of Gothenburg)
- b. How well do Canada's care leave policies and workplace policies and practices support employees with adult or elder care responsibilities?(Donna Lero, University of Guelph, and Diane-Gabrielle Tremblay, Télé-université of the University of Québec)

Session 6 concludes with comments by Laura den Dulk (Erasmus University, Rotterdam)

12.45-14.15: Lunch

Chair: Peter Moss

14.15-15.00. Session 7. Information from international organisations and about collaborative work

Members are invited to share information about work on leave policies and research being undertaken by international organisations; and about future collaborative work.

15.00-16.15. Session 8. Network business

- a. Membership
- b. Review
- c. Website
- d. 2014 seminar
- e. Any other business