International Network for Leave Policies & Research

Parental Leave under Covid-19: global perspectives

Webinar 17-18th September 2020

To be accessed through ZOOM link that will be announced the week before the seminar.

Any comments, questions or suggestions can be addressed to Ann-Zofie Duvander, ann-zofie.duvander@sociology.su.se. Make note changes may occur, the program is still preliminary!!

Thursday 17th of September at 14-17 o’clock Greenwich Mean Time like in London

14.00-14.15 Introduction and technical checking, Ann-Zofie Duvander
14.30-14.45 Mara Yerkes: Gender (In)equality in times of COVID19: insights from the Netherlands
14.45-15.00 Anna Escobedo, Irene Lapuerta and Gerardo Meil: Spanish families Work-Life-Balance under the Covid crisis
15.00-15.15 Comments by Peter Moss + questions from audience
15.15-15.30 Break
15.30-15.45 Margaret O’Brien Caring and earning in families with young children under COVID-19: insights from London, UK
15.45-16.00 Richard Petts: How has COVID-19 Changed Parents’ Division of Domestic Labor in the U.S.?
16.00-16.15 Anna Kurowska: Presenting two new projects; familydemic and policydemic to study the time of the pandemic
16.15-16.30 Comments by Thordis Reimer + questions from audience
16.30-16.50 Audience reflections 20 minutes

Friday 18th of September at 8-11 o’clock Greenwich Mean Time like in London

8.00-8.15 Introduction, technical checking, Ann-Zofie Duvander
8.15-8.30 Suzy Morrisey. How the Pandemic has been approached on New Zealand
8.30-8.45 Marie Valentova: Leave for family reasons COVID19 in Luxembourg. Description, coverage and estimated take-up.
8.45-9.00 Fan Wu and Xuan Li : Do Leave Policies meet family needs in China: COVID-19 challenges and opportunities?
9.00-9.30  Comments by Karin Wall + questions from audience
9.30-9.45  Break
9.45-10.00  Sonja Blum and Ivana Dobrotic  Children first? Or last? Childcare policies during the Covid-19 pandemic and the role of ideas
10.00-10.15  Ruta Brazene  on Lithuanian survey
10.15-10.30  Comments by Gudny Eydal
10.30-10.45  Audience reflections
10.45-11.00  Closing and future network business and activities, Margaret O’Brien